

At-Risk Designation Request Form

Utah Code 20A-2-606

What does this request do?

State law allows certain non-government individuals and organizations to obtain some of your voter registration information. This form allows certain individuals to request that their voter registration record is classified as at-risk. Personally identifiable information will not be publicly released. The information that must be provided is the residential/mailling address, party affiliation and age range of the voter.

Please provide your personal information:

Full Name

Address or Date of Birth (to find your voter registration record)

Phone Number or Email Address (to contact you regarding this form if necessary)

Utah law only allows certain categories of individuals to withhold their voter registration records from disclosure.

I am applying for designation as an at-risk voter because I am, or I reside with:

- ☐ An individual who is a victim of, or who is threatened with, domestic violence or dating violence
- ☐ A law enforcement officer
- ☐ A public figure (Definition can be found in Utah Code 20A-1-102(62))
- ☐ A member of the armed forces
- ☐ An individual protected by a protective or protection order

Please provide a statement below that explains why you meet the category you indicated above. This section is not required if you are a victim of domestic violence or dating violence, you are likely to be a victim of domestic or dating violence, you reside with an individual who is a victim of domestic or dating violence, or you reside with an individual who is likely to be a victim of domestic violence or dating violence. Attach additional sheets if necessary. Your election official may require you to provide additional documentation to verify that you meet the category that you indicated above.

Read the disclaimer statement below and then sign and date.

Submitting this request limits the disclosure of your voter registration record after this form has been processed by the election official. Submitting this form does not remove or prevent the disclosure of your personal information that may be located in other government or commercial databases. Unless you are or likely to be a victim of domestic violence or dating violence, or an individual who resides with an individual who is or likely to be a victim of domestic violence or dating violence, the election official may request additional documentation to verify that you meet the category that you indicated above.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Utah that the foregoing is true and correct.
